

Antonio Maria Lovecchio
IPWG – Coordinator candidature
Biography

Antonio Maria Lovecchio, born in Bari, Italy on November 26th, 1988.

After obtaining the Master degree in Law in 2012 at Università degli studi di Bari, he started to work as a trainee lawyer in one of the most important law firm in Bari, RIALP. Completed the trainee period and having touched with hands all the aspects of the commercial and business law, he worked as in-house lawyer for the courier group of POSTE ITALIANE, SDA Express Courier.

In 2014 he moved to Shanghai whereas, after an initial period at the ITA (Italian Trade Agency) under the supervision of the director Mr. Claudio Pasqualucci, he moved to an Human Resources consulting company.

From 2016 he works in HFG Law & Intellectual Property Law Firm in the role of foreign lawyer assisting local and international companies in the IP field in cooperation with Mr. Fabio Giacobello, managing partner of the firm.

Antonio passed the Italian bar examination in September 2015 and currently lives in Shanghai with his family.